

PLANT FACILITIES - COLORED SCHOOLS

AUSTIN. This is an eight grade center with one teacher taught in a church.

TRUE VINE. This is an eight grade center with two teachers taught in a church.

ST. MATTHEWS. This is an eight grade center with one teacher. It is located on church property. It is a one-story frame construction with tin roof containing one classroom. There is electricity, a coal stove, outdoor toilets. It is in poor condition.

CHAPEL HILL. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure located on church property. It has one classroom, coal stoves, electricity, outdoor toilets. There is no water.

JOSEY CREEK. This eight grade center is a one-story frame structure with composition roof. It has one teacher and is located on church property. It contains two classrooms, has electricity, a wood stove, well with chain and bucket.

GUM BOTTOM. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with composition roof. It has one classroom, a cistern, electricity, a wood stove and outdoor toilets. There are two teachers and the building is located on church property.

PLAIRS. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with metal roof. It is located on church property and contains one classroom. There is electricity, a coal stove, outdoor toilets, hand pump for water. One teacher is employed.

LIBERTY HILL. This twelve grade center with five teachers is located on a two acre campus. Three buses transport the children.

The one story frame administration building with metal roof, wood floors, walls, and ceiling is a Rosenwald construction erected in 1925. It contains four classrooms, an auditorium used for a classroom, a library, and office.

There is a one-story frame building erected in 1949 which contains a lunchroom seating 45 and two classrooms.

There are coal stoves, electricity, cistern and pump with pressure tank, outdoor toilets, and fountains on the grounds. There are outdoor basketball courts, and a football field joins the campus. There is some good furniture.

MC GEE. This eight grade center is a one-story frame structure with metal roof. It contains one classroom and is taught by one teacher. There are ten acres in the grounds. There are outdoor toilets, a coal stove, electricity, but no water. The furniture is good.

CONNER. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with metal roof and has one teacher. It is located on one acre of ground, contains two classrooms and has electricity, outdoor toilets and a well with a hand pump. The furniture is good.

NEW PROSPECT. This eight grade center is a two story frame structure located on church property and taught by two teachers. It contains two classrooms and has electricity, outdoor toilets, coal stoves, and a well with a hand pump.

MABEN. This twelve grade center with thirteen teachers is located on nine acres. The lunchroom erected in 1951 is a one story brick structure with built-up roof, concrete floors, plastered walls, but no ceiling overhead. It contains twelve classrooms with two opening into an auditorium and one office. There is gas heat, city water and electricity, outdoor pit toilets and good furniture. There are two basketball courts, playground equipment, a football field without lights or seats and outdoor fountains.

MHOON FARM. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with three teachers and is located on a one acre campus. There are four classrooms. Facilities include electricity, coal stoves, outdoor toilets, a deep well and pressure tank.

MULDROW. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with a metal roof. It contains two classrooms, has three teachers and is located on church property. It has electricity, pit toilet, coal stoves and a hand pump.

HICKORY GROVE. This eight grade center is a one story frame old building containing two classrooms with one teacher. There is electricity, a coal stove, and outdoor toilets.

PINE GROVE. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with metal roof located on church property and has two teachers and only one classroom. There are outdoor toilets, electricity, a coal stove and good furniture.

TURN PIKE. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with metal roof and is located on church property. It has two teachers, two classrooms, electricity coal stoves, outdoor toilets and water from a cistern. The furniture is good.

BETHEL. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with metal roof containing two classrooms and is located on church property. There are two teachers. It has electricity, a coal stove, outdoor toilets, good furniture but no water.

PLEASANT GROVE. This twelve grade center has ten teachers and is located on two acres of ground. Two buses transport the children. The administration building is a one story frame construction with composition roof. It contains five classrooms and an auditorium which is used for two classrooms. There is a small one story frame building with two classrooms which is in poor condition. It has electricity, coal stoves and pit toilets. There are drinking fountains, a deep well and electric pump. The furniture is good.

ROBERTSON. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with a composition roof. It has a coal stove, outdoor toilets, electricity, and no water. There is one teacher.

SUDDITH. This eight grade center is a one story structure with composition roof. It contains two classrooms and has one teacher. It has electricity, a coal stove, outdoor toilets, and no water. The campus is one acre of land.

SAND CREEK. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with metal roof. It contains three classrooms and three teachers and is located on one acre. There are pit toilets, a cistern, coal stoves and electricity.

LUMMUS CHAPEL. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with composition roof and is located on church property. It has a coal stove but no electricity nor water. There is one teacher.

BLACK JACK. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with metal roof located on church property. It contains two classrooms and has electricity, coal stoves, pit toilets but no water. There are two teachers.

ROCK HILL. This high school center with eight teachers is located on a three acre campus and has three buildings. The administration building is a one story frame structure with a composition roof, wood floors, walls and ceiling. It was erected in 1925 with Rosenwald funds. It contains four classrooms, an auditorium used for two classrooms, an office, coal stoves and electricity. The lunchroom is a one story frame structure with composition roof erected in 1947 from a war surplus building. It contains a kitchen, one classroom, a storage room, dressing rooms for cooks, coal stoves and running water. The vocational agriculture building is one story block structure with a composition roof and concrete floors. It contains one classroom, a shop, two toolrooms. It was erected in 1949. The facility includes a deep well and pressure tank, outdoor toilets and outdoor basketball courts.

SPRING HILL. This eight grade center is a one story frame structure with two classrooms. It has electricity, coal stoves and outdoor toilets. There is one teacher.

MORRIS CHAPEL. This eight grade center with two teachers is taught in a church. There is electricity, a coal stove and outdoor toilets.

EBENEZER. This eight grade center is a frame one story structure with metal roof containing three classrooms. It is located on church property. There are three teachers. The facilities include outdoor toilets, electricity, coal stoves but no well.