

Inside Facts Suspected

- The Superintendent alleges he never knew that EAEOCS was interested rather with BOS for three years. We sought partnership. We were continuously told we would get the building
-
- The property appears to have been leased already when we make the inquiry because of to hunters, deer stands on property.
- It was deliberate to allow campus to grow up. The organization community was begging to help maintain the landscape with volunteers in community upkeep the lawn. The school superintendent claims there were not enough personnel and to allow it to grow up was a form of "protection" and too much liability for community to upkeep. We believed it would be more costly to clear property to curb further cost to open
- The Superintendent is an Afro American who began appoint after consolidation approximately 2017. The school board make up three white, and 2 blacks.
-
- Oktibbeha County Board of Supervisors 3 Afro American majority. One of the supervisors rarely support the black community. The board's attorney is a white state legislature who was involved in the shut down and was hired after the prior attorney died. He was not in favor of the acquisition of county getting the former schools. He had another agenda.
- The schools district would not approve the application process for a Landmark in Mississippi. There are historical white landmarks with the distinction. The school district also houses a community program as community program "Building Strong Families." We discussed such program extension as a tenant in the Moor Property in 2016
- The SOCSO partners with Starkville Park and Recreation in use of the former Henderson High School Football facilities, school property to house community programs: Our community was denied resources in the rural communities of Oktibbeha county
- Currently, the Former Alexander High School, renamed East elementary was mandated to close along with East Oktibbeha and West Oktibbeha County High in 2015 by the State Of Mississippi. Now they have proposed to that East Elementary will remain open, and now listed as a "Learning Center". Superintendent stated, "Too much money spent during consolidation, and they will use campus and give part to community." Overlooking our community!
- Millions were spent on East and West High Schools. Allowed to devalue, not secured for vandalism.. They drove down the market value.

6

- The School District have destroyed or misplaced over 30 historical graduation classes of Moor High and Pleasant Grove High Schools. No accountability, and refused to allow our organization to safe keep when invited to consolidation meeting. We were told they are in the MSU library, but no record according to Mississippi State University Special Collections personnel